COMPLAINT INFORMATION, PROCEDURES, FORM, AND AUTHORIZATION

The SC Commission for Higher Education responds to formal complaints against public, independent non-profit and proprietary institutions of higher education in South Carolina. However, the Commission has limited authority over public and non-profit independent colleges and universities and cannot offer legal advice or initiate court proceedings. The Commission will not mediate complaints where the complainant has retained legal counsel or initiated legal action.

Please note that the Commission cannot review complaints related to course grades, academic sanctions, or discipline/conduct matters unless the student can prove that the institution did not comply with its policies and procedures for appeal. The Commission cannot review complaints where another governmental agency has a process or jurisdiction to mediate complaints. In absence of mitigating circumstances, students must submit a complaint to the Commission within six months of exhausting the appeals process at the institution. The Commission will not act on anonymous complaints.

STEP 1: If a student has concerns related to classroom situations or administrative actions, he/she should contact the faculty or staff member(s) with whom he/she has a conflict. It may be possible to resolve the concerns without the need for formal institutional action. However, if the student's complaint is not resolved satisfactorily, or if the complaint cannot be resolved by contacting the faculty or staff member(s), the student should proceed to STEP 2.

STEP 2: The student should file a complaint through his/her institution's complaint process. Information on the process can usually be found in the institution's academic catalog, student handbook, or website. Many institutions have an ombudsman to mediate on behalf of students. <http://ombuds-blog.blogspot.com/p/higher-ed.html>. If the student is still unable to resolve the complaint, he/she should proceed to STEP 3.

STEP 3: Investigate to determine where assistance may be available from other entities.

- SC Public Technical Colleges: Students enrolled at a South Carolina technical college should contact the SC Technical College System office <http://www.sctechsystem.edu/students/student-complaint-form.html>
- Independent Nonprofit Institutions: Students enrolled at an in-state independent nonprofit institution should contact the SC Independent Colleges and Universities <http://www.scicu.org/contact/>. SCICU provides information and resources to assist students and parents enrolled in independent nonprofit higher education in South Carolina.
- Nursing: Students enrolled in nursing licensure programs should contact the SC Department of Labor, Licensing, and Regulation, Board of Nursing. <http://www.llr.state.sc.us/POL/Nursing/index.asp?file=STAFF.HTM>
- Barbering: Students enrolled in barbering programs should contact the SC Department of Labor, Licensing, and Regulation, Board of Barber Examiners. <http://www.llr.state.sc.us/POL/Barber/>
- Cosmetology: Students enrolled in cosmetology, nail tech, or esthetic programs should contact the SC Department of Labor, Licensing, and Regulation, Board of Cosmetology. <http://www.llr.state.sc.us/POL/Cosmetology/>

- Distance Learning: Students enrolled in distance learning programs should contact the state authorization agency in the home state of the institution. Each institution includes state authorization information on its web site.
- Discrimination: If a student believes that an institution has acted in a discriminatory manner, he or she may wish to contact the South Carolina Human Affairs Commission <http://www.schac.sc.gov> or the U.S. Department of Education’s Office for Civil Rights <http://www2.ed.gov/about/offices/list/ocr/index.html>
- Disabilities Accommodation: If a student believes that an institution has not complied with the requirements of Section 504 of the Rehabilitation Act of 1973 or Title II of the Americans with Disabilities Act of 1990, which prohibit discrimination on the basis of disability, contact the U.S. Department of Education, Office for Civil Rights <http://www2.ed.gov/about/offices/list/ocr/transition.html>
- SC Financial Aid: If a student has been denied South Carolina state-based financial aid, he or she may file an appeal with the Division of Student Affairs http://www.che.sc.gov/Portals/0/CHE\_Docs/studentservices/appeals/appealguidelines.pdf.
- Federal Financial Aid: For student issues related to federal financial aid, contact the Ombudsman Group of the U.S. Department of Education for disputes related to Direct Loans, Federal Family Education Loan (FFEL) Program loans, Guaranteed Student Loans, and Perkins Loans. <https://studentaid.ed.gov/repay-loans/disputes/prepare/contact-ombudsman>, e-mail caseteams@ed.gov, or call 1-800-872-5327.
- The Office of the Inspector General (OIG) is charged with investigating and detecting fraud, waste, abuse, mismanagement, misconduct, or violations of state or federal law, and wrongdoing in the Executive Branch. OIG only has investigative authority over the Executive Branch of South Carolina State Government, which includes state-supported colleges and universities. <http://oig.sc.gov/Pages/default.aspx>.

STEP 4: If the complaint cannot be resolved through the above channels, review the parameters and process to file a complaint with the Commission. Complete and submit the Commission’s complaint form below.

After receiving a complaint, Commission staff will review the submitted materials and contact the submitter for any required additional information or clarifications. The Commission will then send a copy of the complaint to the institution against which the complaint has been filed and ask for a response, usually within three weeks. After receiving the college or university’s response, Commission staff will determine whether the institution’s complaint process has been followed and exhausted and what additional steps or follow-up may be taken. The Commission will inform both parties involved in the complaint.

4. The institution forwards its response to the staff for review.
  - (A) If it is concluded that the allegations do not establish a violation of standards or any serious deviation of educational standards imposed by the Commission, a letter is sent to the complainant confirming this, along with a copy of the institution’s response.
  - (B) If it appears that a standard has been violated or that the institution has not complied with the institution’s established policies, staff will attempt a settlement through mediation. If there is evidence that the institution may no longer be maintaining minimum standards, an investigation may be made to determine other actions.

If you have additional questions about the complaint process contact the main office of the Commission (803) 737.2260 or email cbarton@che.sc.gov.
